

THE WILDLIFE MAP OF MAHARASHTRA

Perched on the compass: a Mahratta Woodpecker, named in honour of Maharashtra

- Protected Area (TR: Tiger Reserve, NP: National Park, WLS: Wildlife Sanctuary)
- Water Body
- Endangered / Vulnerable / Threatened Fauna
- State Symbols (State Animal: Indian Giant Squirrel, State Bird: Yellow-footed Green Pigeon, State Butterfly: Blue Mormon, State Tree: Mango, State Flower: Jarul)

REFERENCES: Field Guide to Indian Mammals (Menon) | Birds of the Indian Subcontinent (Grimmett and Inskipp) | Snakes of India (Whittaker and Captain)
 *Disclaimer- The creator/author of the map is not responsible for the boundary shown in the map. Map not to scale
 Illustrated by Rohan Chakravarty for WWF-India