

Infuse environmental themes in your lessons and celebrate Green Days with these resources.

10 August | World Lion Day

Did you know that most lions live in the savannah or grasslands? Just one population of wild forest-dwelling lions remains in India, in the Gir Forest National Park, Gujarat.

Learn more about the King of the Jungle with these resources.

Video Do you think lions are brilliant hunters? Take a guess before you watch this video.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OMkEVX23BdM>

Quiz How much do you know about lions? Take the quiz to find out.

<https://www.wwf.org.uk/learn/quizzes/lion-quiz>

Course Did you know, lion cubs are born with spots, which eventually fade as they grow older? Know such interesting facts about the big cats of India through this online course.

<https://academy.wwfindia.org/courses/the-big-cats-of-india/>

Illustrated Map Famous for its iconic Asiatic lion, Gujarat is home to many more diverse plants and animals. Learn more using this map.

<https://academy.wwfindia.org/2022/04/15/gujarat/>

12 August | World Elephant Day

Baby elephants stay with their mothers for 16 years to learn all the survival skills. That's the same amount of time we take to finish high school!

Explore the world of this majestic mammal through this resource bundle.

Video What makes elephants the most majestic creatures on earth? Watch this video to know top 10 facts about them.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ry_41R_8tbQ

Game Because of their incredible memory, it is said that elephants never forget. Challenge your memory with this fun game.

<https://matchthememory.com/21elephants>

Video Make your own little elephant friend to take everywhere with the help of this DIY origami video.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=d6hG7ha3bD4>

Book Delve into real-life stories about these super creatures from around the world with this book at WWF-India's Nature Store.

<https://naturestore.wwfindia.org/product/elephant-the-super-creatures-available-in-english-and-hindi/>

15 August | Independence Day

Independence Day is a time to celebrate the incredibly biodiverse land we call home. Did you know that our country is home to 7-8% of all species ever recorded?

Let's explore the incredible biodiversity of India with these resources.

Infographic Check out this wildlife map of India. How many species have you heard of before?

<https://academy.wfindia.org/2023/05/25/india/>

Podcast Listen to this podcast on 'Nation and Nature' to learn about India's rich resources and how we can conserve them.

<https://academy.wfindia.org/2021/04/04/nation-and-nature/>

Video Watch this wildlife national anthem to see who we share our land with.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SohzXSx84Yo>

Video Who doesn't want plants and birds in their backyard? Make your own wildlife friendly garden with the help of this video.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EWtchv7aU7Y>

19 August | World Orangutan Day

The orangutan is one of humankind's closest relatives – in fact, we share nearly 97% of the same DNA! The word orangutan comes from the Malay words “orang hutan”, meaning “human of the forest”.

Get to know our cousins from the jungles of Borneo and Sumatra with this resource bundle!

Worksheet Complete the word search at the bottom of this page and be sure to ask how each word is relevant to the orangutan.

<https://kids.orangutan.com/learning-activities/>

Video Did you know, orangutans can use tools to cut and break things? Watch this video to learn more amazing facts about them.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gFzqqaBA9wQ>

Video What would you do if you found an orangutan in your bedroom? Watch this heartwarming video before answering the question.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TQQXstNh45g>